Dear friends in faith,

First, a word of gratitude for a few days' break. ChrisAnn and I had a delightful time at Black MoShannon State Park, one of our favorite spots for hiking, canoeing, reading at the beach or sitting by the campfire. The recent rains had brought the lake to a full level and the woodland's greens of June are like no other.

Last summer, while pulling our little Scamp camper, we'd experience the occasional little wiggle and the more rare slight sway. Thus, in preparation for this season, we added an anti-sway hitch in hopes of greater safety on the roads. I am happy to report that 'Scout' towed like a champ through wind, rain, and trucker's swirls. For me, a slight but significant reprieve in the tensions of being on the road. Fewer concerns about weight balancing during packing, a happier camper upon arrival and more relaxed and ready to 'dive back in' here at home.

I'm wondering if there may be a bit of a parallel here at Park. I'm excited that you are in a healthy and happy situation, fully ready to move towards calling your next pastor. I am delighted that we've pulled through from past to present in a most positive way. I trust that, with God's help, you'll be happy to dive right in to the next chapter of your faith journeys.

in hope and joy, pastor bob

Exciting Update from the PNC

The Pastor Nominating Committee of Park Church looks forward to presenting the Rev. Todd Allen, candidate to be our new pastor, on Sunday, June 27. Rev. Allen will lead worship on the 27th. Immediately following worship, a congregational meeting will be held to vote on extending a call for him to be Park's next pastor.

A letter with more detailed information about Rev. Allen will be sent to each member's home, and a "Welcome to Park" event will be held after he is able to make his move to Beaver.

Summer Sundays Storytime

This Sunday there will be a Summer Sundays Storytime when children are invited to the pavilion for a Bible story/activity right before the sermon begins. At least two adults will accompany the children to the Storytime area before the sermon begins and the children will be escorted back to their parents at the conclusion of the worship service. Lyndsay Owens will be the teacher this week.
